

January Event Notice

Wednesday, January 16, 2019

EVENT: Ethics in Engineering

The ASHE Lake Erie Section jointly with the Northeast Ohio Chapter of WTS present Ethics in Engineering, a two-hour course designed to fulfill the professional development requirement in ethics as required for renewal of professional engineering licenses.

Mark D. Griffin, Inspector General, Cuyahoga County, and Delante Thomas, Deputy Inspector General, Cuyahoga County, will speak on ethics in the profession of engineering. A box lunch will be served and there will be a break at the midpoint of the two-hour presentation.

AGENDA: 11:30 am – 11:45 am: Registration
11:45 am – 2:00 pm: Boxed lunch, Speakers & Presentation, Midpoint break

LOCATION: Crowne Plaza Cleveland South, 5300 Rockside Road, Independence, Ohio 44131

MEAL

OPTIONS: (Box lunch includes whole fresh fruit, potato chips, fresh baked cookie and a soft drink)
California Chicken Sandwich
Roast Beef Bistro Sandwich
Grilled Veggie Wrap

COST: $20 ASHE and/or WTS Members; $25 for non-members

RSVP: By Thursday, January 10, 2019. Payment on Paypal will serve as the official RSVP.

ASHE/WTS Member

Non-Member

This meeting will qualify for 2.0 hours in professional ethics training as required by House Bill 236 for professional development requirement in professional ethics relevant to the practices of engineering or surveying.

Attendance sheet will be posted on the ASHE website after the meeting (<http://lakeerie.ashe.pro/calendar/>)

UPCOMING: February – Drive Ohio
March – Project of the Year

ASHE 2018-2019
OFFICERS

Jim Shea
President

Sean Milroy
Vice President

Kathy Johnson
Secretary

Steve Tyneski
Treasurer

ASHE
DIRECTORS

Chris
Preto
Regional Director

Jamie
Scott
Past President

Beth
Fulton
Director

Tom
Flask
Director

Brian
Sears
Director

Steve
Gage
Director

Jonathan
Hren
Director

Julie
Meyer
Director